We, the class of 1963,
proudly dedicate our Crest
to Mr. Carl F. Welch, Supervising Principal of Reynolds High, for whom we have high respect and admiration.

Dedication

Mr. Carl F. Welch, Supervising Principal

We, the class of 1963,
proudly dedicate our Crest to Mr. R. J. Bost, our principal, for his guidance during the past three years and his understanding of our many problems.

Dedication

Mr. R. J. Bost, Principal

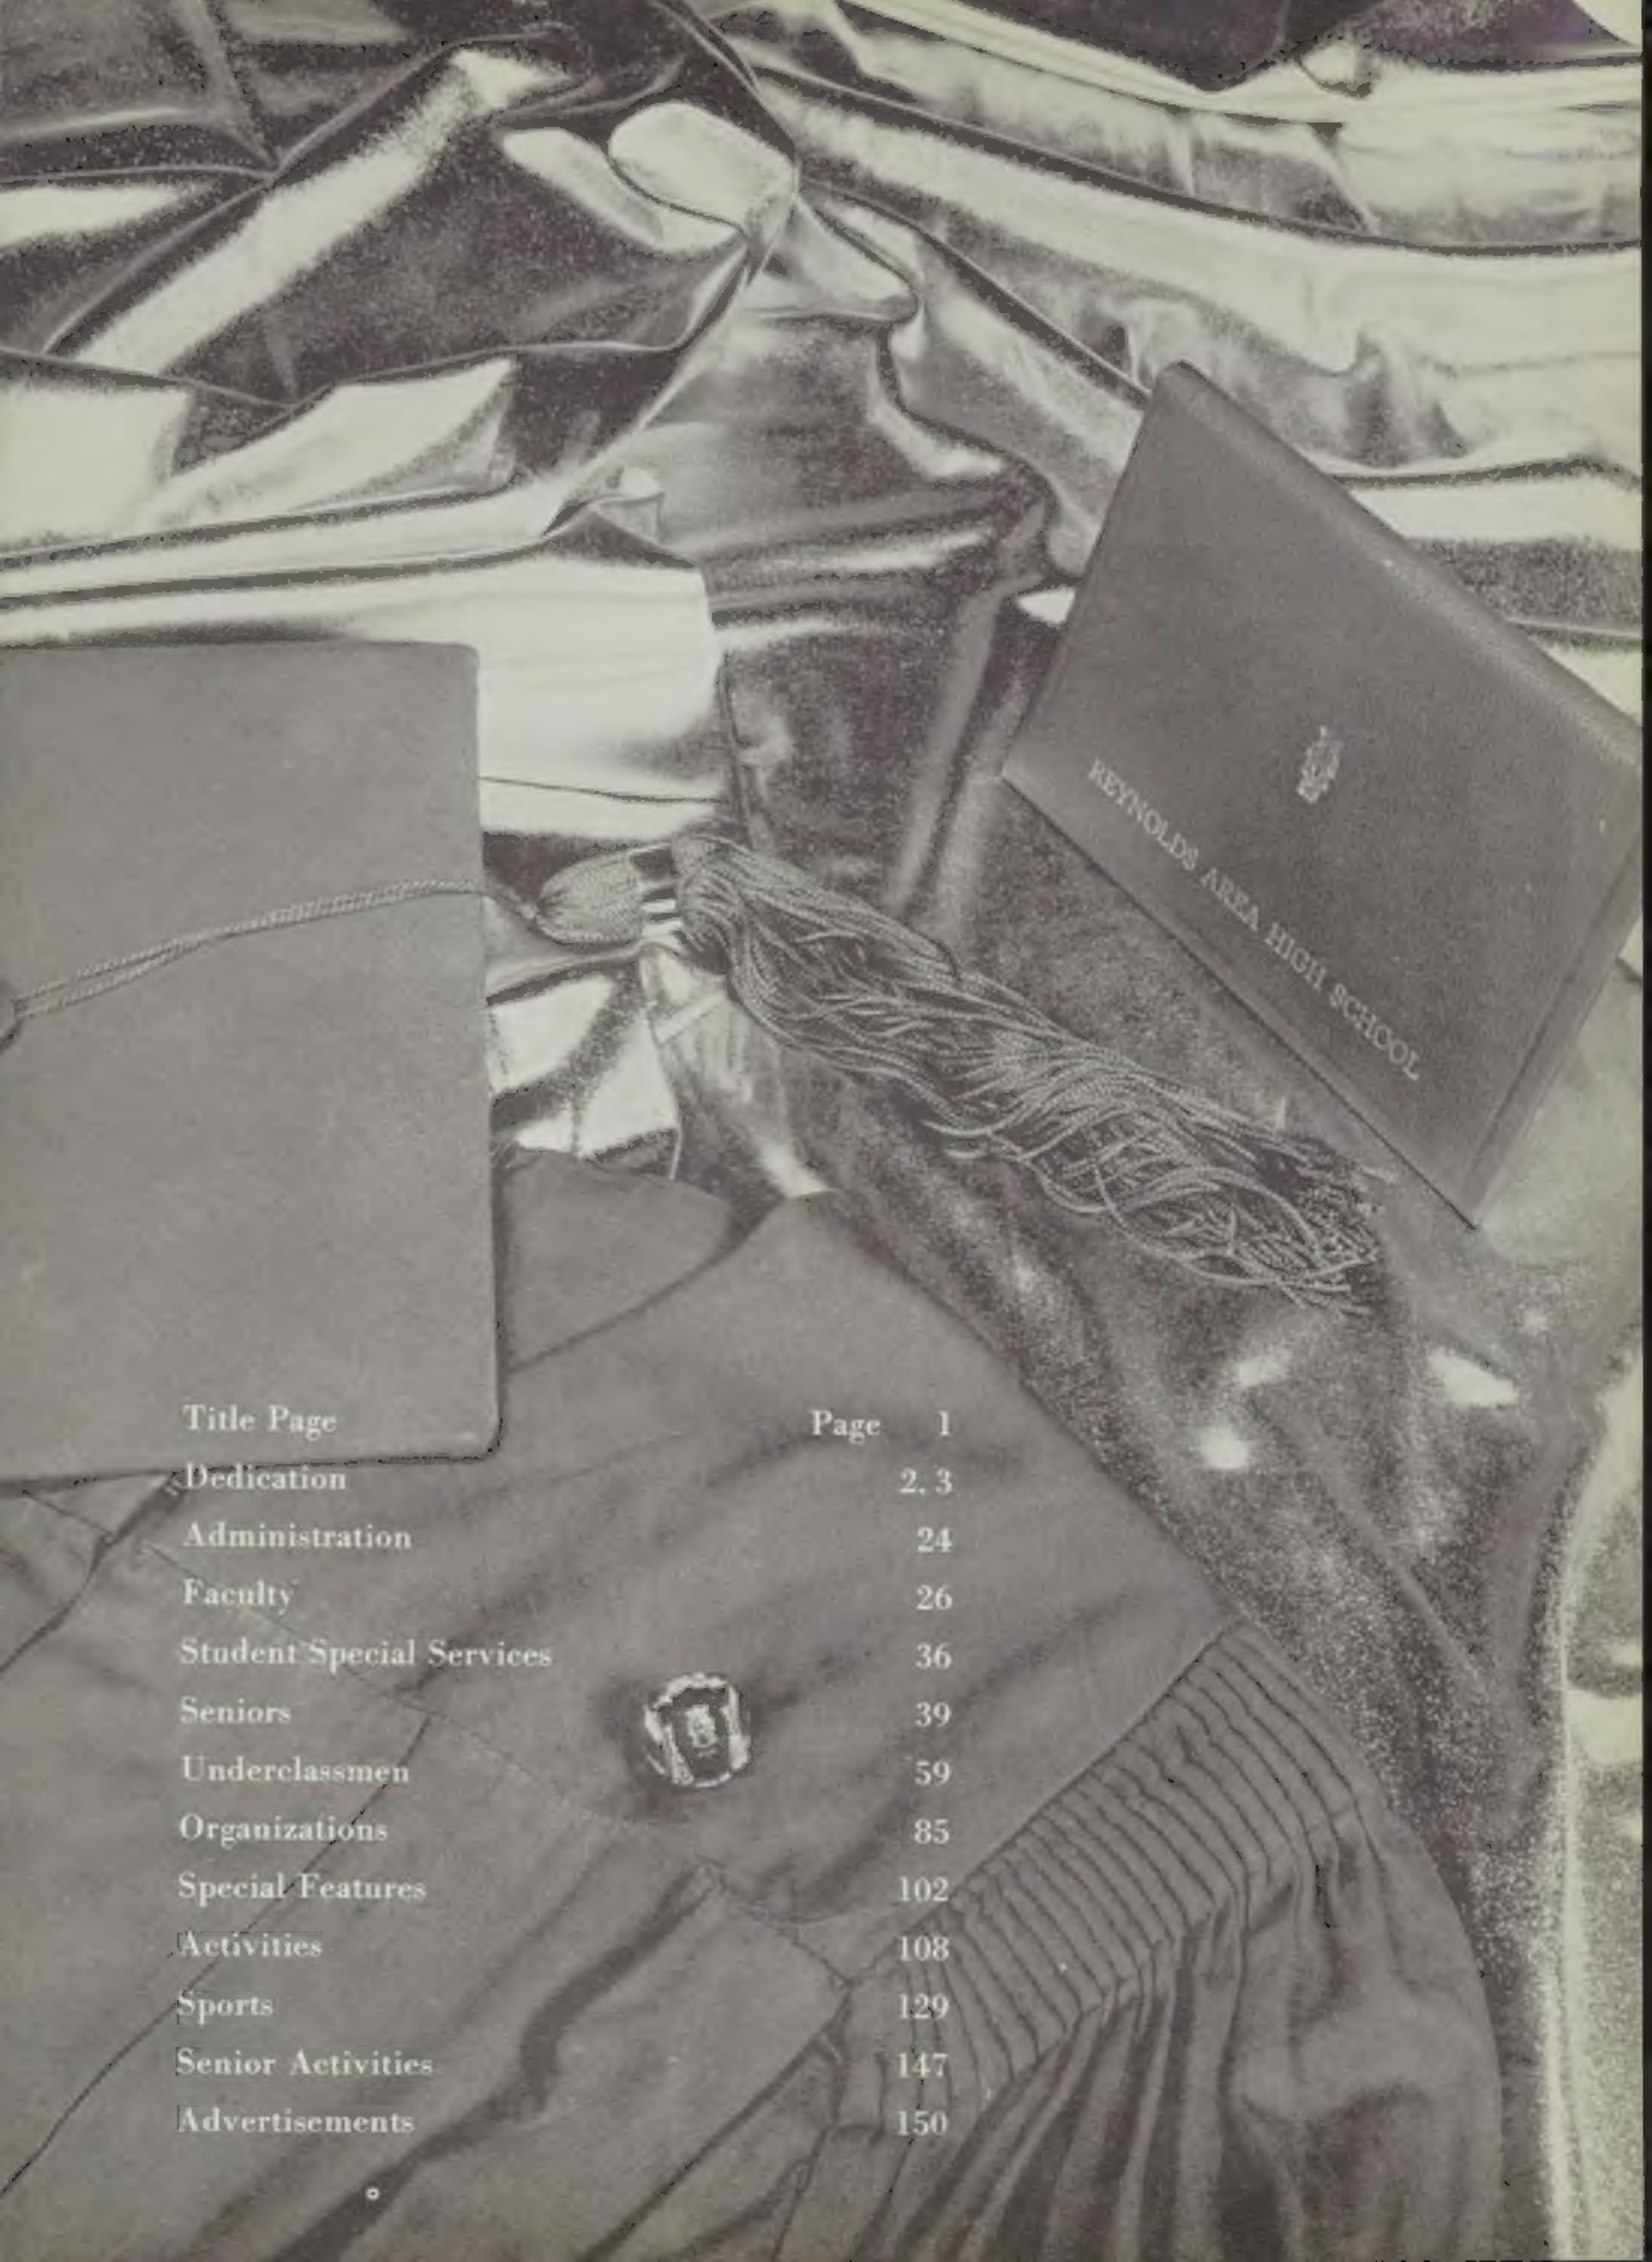

Memories—ah memories! They are joyous and they are sad, but they are all precious to us. All the fun and laughter, tears and heartaches—all these memories of our school days will be held tight within these pages.

We, the Crest staff, hope this book will bring back those precious moments of the year gone by, and in the future years, recapture memories of those wonderful moments!

If your purpose is strong and true

Welcome, Emmert Arford to Reynolds High

The world is waiting for you

These memories are gathered in happy times and lived with us throughout the year.

Our Classes . . .

But I keep telling you I can't read

How do you boil water?

Class dismissed! I'm going fishing.

Now this is a square!

Now, when I was in the Army . . .

Scratch, Scratch, Scratch!

The electromagnet works—here comes the moon.

What, no meter stick!

Look whose laughing in the third row.

Now, this is where we raise horses.

The time goes by.

Little by little the seed we sow

How many days tardy?

How many days tardy?

Started up again in Spring 2005

Sorry, I'm occupied

As we work together

Everybody ready now, 1, 2, 3.

Crestwood Homes are manufactured at Reynolds Development by Greenville Lumber & Supply Company. The local people engaged in the production of Crestwood Homes are proud of the product they make. The hundreds of people that live in Crestwood Homes enjoy the advantages of a better made home. Make sure, in the years to come, you are not denied the opportunity of living in a good home. We, of course, would like it to be a Crestwood Home.
